Good Morning Dear Friend.

Thanks so much for coming to worship with us on this first Sunday of 2022. It seems odd to realize that we are in 2022 already, doesn't it? Time passes so quickly as we all head toward eternity. Perhaps that is why Scripture tells us to 'redeem the time' and make the most of it. We have so little of it. Today's Scripture is a fitting passage to consider as we begin a new year. For it gives us some wisdom on how to approach time on this earth. Thanks again for being with us. Have a great week!

III. _____ The _____ (3:25-27)

CONCLUSION

"Joy is not necessarily the absence of suffering, it is the presence of God."
- Sam Storms

"God will not permit any troubles to come upon us, unless He has a specific plan by which great blessing can come out of the difficulty."
- Peter Marshall

"God loves each of us as if there were only one of us." - Augustine

"If the Lord Jehovah makes us wait, let us do so with our whole hearts; for blessed are all they that wait for Him. He is worth waiting for. The waiting itself is beneficial to us: it tries faith, exercises patience, trains submission, and endears the blessing when it comes. The Lord's people have always been a waiting people." - Charles Spurgeon
