Good Morning Dear Friend.

Thanks for coming to worship with us on this Fourth of July Weekend. Today we're taking a break from the OT book of Ruth, to consider some of Paul's instructions about living as Christians in a non-Christian world. How can we live as citizens of heaven, while being citizens of this earth? May our Lord help us live as His people in this place He has put us, and fulfill the purpose He has for us. Thanks again for coming; have a great week, and July 4.

- President Thomas Jefferson in an address to Danbury Baptists.

"We have no government armed with power capable of contending with human passions unbridled by morality and religion. Our constitution was made for a moral and religious people... it is wholly inadequate to the government of any other..."

Instructions on Worship

2 I urge, then, first of all, that petitions, prayers, intercession and thanksgiving be made for all people— 2 for kings and all those in authority, that we may live peaceful and quiet lives in all godliness and holiness. 3 This is good, and pleases God our Savior, 4 who wants all people to be saved and to come to a knowledge of the truth. 5 For there is one God and one mediator between God and mankind, the man Christ Jesus, 6 who gave himself as a ransom for all people. This has now been witnessed to at the proper time. 7 And for this purpose I was appointed a herald and an apostle—I am telling the truth, I am not lying—and a true and faithful teacher of the Gentiles. 8 Therefore I want the men everywhere to pray, lifting up holy hands without anger or disputing.
