

The Plan Once It's Too Cold Outside

8:00 a.m. - Indoor service upstairs, with face masks encouraged but not enforced; recommended but not required.

8:00 a.m. - Indoor service live feed downstairs, with face masks required.

8:00 a.m. - Children's Church available for age 4 - 5th grade downstairs in lake room.

10:00 a.m. - Indoor service upstairs, with face masks encouraged but not enforced, recommended but not required.

10:00 a.m. - Indoor service live feed downstairs with face masks required

Both services can be transmitted live to 91.3 FM car radios in the parking lot.

Online, the worship service can be watched with either the livestream at 8 a.m., or watched anytime with the recorded video of the 8 a.m. Service.

Due to expressed concerns & few people committing at this time, we won't have an in-person Sunday school class time.

Lunch and Congregational Meeting October 25th

Following the 10am service at Terrace Shores (approx 11:30am) we're having a meal together. Feel free to contact Jody Jingst at 920-229-8664 if you would like to bring a dish to share. Immediately following the lunch (approx 12:30pm) we're holding our quarterly congregational meeting. Though only members can vote, all are welcome to attend.

Gluten-Free Crackers will be used for the Lord's Supper today.

Good Morning Dear Friend.

Thank you for coming to worship with us today. If you have noticed the tension in our nation, you have problem also felt the tension rising within yourself (along with your blood pressure:-). I don't like disagreement and contention, and I'm guessing you don't either. But as people, we have a variety of temperaments, backgrounds, and viewpoints. Mix that in with our sin nature, and you have a recipe for anger and discord, even within the Body of Christ. As we look to move our services entirely indoor sometime this fall, and endure the final month of a contentious election season, we are going to take a 2-week break from studying Zephaniah, and look at some wisdom Paul gives us from the Lord, about getting along with others. This is good wisdom for all people, but especially for us as followers of Christ. May God be honored, both in our relationship with Him, and with others.

Thanks again for worshiping with us; have a great week!

Romans 14:1-12

The Weak and the Strong

14 Accept the one whose faith is weak, without quarreling over disputable matters. 2 One person's faith allows them to eat anything, but another, whose faith is weak, eats only vegetables. 3 The one who eats everything must not treat with contempt the one who does not, and the one who does not eat everything must not judge the one who does, for God has accepted them. 4 Who are you to judge someone else's servant? To their own master, servants stand or fall. And they will stand, for the Lord is able to make them stand. 5 One person considers one day more sacred than another; another considers every day alike. Each of them should be fully convinced in their own mind. 6 Whoever regards one day as special does so to the Lord. Whoever eats meat does so to the Lord, for they give thanks to God; and whoever abstains does so to the Lord and gives thanks to God. 7 For none of us lives for ourselves alone, and none of us dies for ourselves alone. 8 If we live, we live for the Lord; and if we die, we die for the Lord. So, whether we live or die, we belong to the Lord. 9 For this very reason, Christ died and returned to life so that he might be the Lord of both the dead and the living. 10 You, then, why do you judge your brother or sister? Or why do you treat them with contempt? For we will all stand before God's judgment seat. 11 It is written: "'As surely as I live,' says the Lord, 'every knee will bow before me; every tongue will acknowledge God.'" 12 So then, each of us will give an account of ourselves to God.
