THOSE WHO HUNGER

MATTHEW 5:3-6

Good Morning Dear Friend.

Thanks for worshiping with us this morning. Today we begin a look at the one of the greatest sermons ever given, The Sermon on the Mount (Jesus gave a few other sermons also). May God encourage our hearts and challenge our wills as we take in these life-giving words of Jesus.

And may His words have their intended effect in each of us.

Thanks again for coming; have a great week!

Message: Blessed Are the Needy Who Know It

Hymn

Closing Prayer

"The way to deeper knowledge of God is through the lonely valleys of soul poverty and abnegation of all things. The blessed ones who possess the Kingdom are they who have repudiated every external thing and have rooted from their hearts all sense of possessing. These are the 'poor in spirit.'" -A.W. Tozer

"We were promised sufferings. They were part of the program. We were even told, 'Blessed are they that mourn,' and I accept it. I've got nothing that I hadn't bargained for. Of course it is different when the thing happens to oneself, not to others, and in reality, not imagination." - C.S. Lewis, A Grief Observed

"We had long known the Lord without realizing that meekness and lowliness of heart should be the distinguishing feature of the disciple." - Andrew Murray

"To hunger and thirst after righteousness is when nothing in the world can fascinate us so much as being near God."

-Smith Wigglesworth (British Evangelist)
