April 18th, 2021

Good Morning Dear Friend.

We are so glad to have you worshipping with us. Do you find yourself worrying much? Is stress and anxiety playing too big of a role in your life? If so, you are not alone. Worry is a common malady of mankind. In today's Scripture passage, Jesus speaks to His disciples about this issue, and some key thoughts for dealing with it. May God give us each His perspective as we face the anxieties of life, and help us to trust Him for His love and care.

Thanks for being with us; have a great week!

Ushers

We have resumed our usher schedule with the duties limited to handing out bulletins, helping with seating, doing a quick head count, and helping to distribute the elements for the Lord's Supper. Anyone feeling comfortable in helping (whether you ushered in the past or not - free training!!), Please contact the church office letting us know what service you would prefer. Thank you!

Meals

Our deaconesses help to plan a meal schedule for anyone in our church family recovering from child birth, surgery, etc. If you would like to be added to the list to help provide meals please contact the church office. Thanks!

"Christ told his disciples not to be anxious about tomorrow, but he never said not to consider tomorrow. Intelligent problem solving demands careful consideration of the future effects of present solutions." - R. C. Sproul

"Worry does not empty tomorrow of its sorrow. It empties today of its strength." - Corrie Ten Boom

"You find no difficulty in trusting the Lord with the management of the universe and all the outward creation, and can your case be any more complex or difficult than these, that you need to be anxious or troubled about His management of it?" - Hannah Whitall Smith

"I am no longer anxious about anything, as I realize the Lord is able to carry out His will, and His will is mine. It makes no matter where He places me, or how. That is rather for Him to consider than for me; for in the easiest positions He must give me His grace, and in the most difficult, His grace is sufficient." - Missionary Hudson Taylor
