He is not here
He Has Risen
Just as He said

Matthew 28:6

He Is Risen! He Is Risen Indeed!

This ancient greeting was originally more common in the Eastern Church, but has been used widely since then. According to a tradition in the Eastern Orthodox Church, Mary Magdalene made the saying popular when she supposedly exclaimed "Christ is risen" as she met with Emperor Tiberius in Rome. But the original announcement "He is risen", was made by an angel to the ladies who came to Jesus' tomb early on that first resurrection morning. It's truth continues, so we use the present tense "is" when we proclaim His power over death. May the truth of Jesus' resurrection fill us each with hope, and a renewed commitment to live for Him now, sharing the meaning of this wonderful message! Thanks for worshipping with us. Have a blessed Easter!

Closing Prayer

*"Our old history ends with the cross; our new history begins with the resurrection."
- Watchman Nee*

*"If Jesus rose from the dead, then you have to accept all that he said; if he didn't rise from the dead, then why worry about any of what he said? The issue on which everything hangs is not whether or not you like his teaching but whether or not he rose from the dead."
- Tim Keller*

*"On what does the Christian argument for Immortality really rest? It stands upon the pedestal on which the theologian rests the whole of historical Christianity--the Resurrection of Jesus Christ."
- Henry Drummond*

*"Because of the empty tomb, we have peace. Because of His resurrection, we can have peace during even the most troubling of times because we know He is in control of all that happens in the world."
- Paul Chappell*
