Welcome

Good Morning Dear Friend.

Thanks for worshiping with us today. If you ever find yourself discouraged with the evil in this world, the parable Jesus told in today's Scripture passage might encourage your heart. It is no surprise to Him, and He has a plan for removing it one day. In the meantime, may God help us live, inwardly and outwardly, as His people, reflecting His love and holiness. Thank you again for being with us. Have a great week!

ORDER OF SERVICE

Welcome & Announcements

Worship

Congregational Prayer

Ministry For Prayer: Randy & Donna Weets

Hymn

(Children may leave for children's church during late service)

Message: What Do You Do With The Weeds?

Hymn

Closing Prayer

"To seek the highest good is to live well.... He that is kind is free, though he is a slave; he that is evil is a slave, though he be a king."
- Augustine

"If a thing is free to be good it is also free to be bad. And free will is what has made evil possible. Why, then, did God give them free will? Because free will, though it makes evil possible, is also the only thing that makes possible any love or goodness or joy worth having."
- C.S. Lewis

"Too many Christians become bitter and angry in the conflict. If we descend into hatefulness, we have already lost the battle. We must cooperate with God in turning what was meant for evil into a greater good within us. This is why we bless those who would curse us: It is not only for their sakes but to preserve our own soul from its natural response toward hatred."
- Francis Frangipane

"How can a mere finite human being be sure that infinite wisdom would not tolerate certain short-range evils in order for more long-range goods that we can't foresee."
- Peter Kreeft
