Welcome to Church

Good Morning Friend.

Thank you for worshipping with us today. John Mark and Sara Sheppard are missionaries with SIM who work with the Manya people group in Liberia. They are in the states for the remainder of the year and will be worshipping with us from time to time. John Mark is speaking today and is teaching from the book of Matthew. We pray that God's word is an encouragement to you. Thank you again for being with us. Have a great week!

Wed Mornings Women's Bible Study

This group, which meets from 9am to 11am, will be starting a new study on May 11th - Faithfully Different by Natasha Crane, who shares how you can live out your faith with conviction, discernment, and courage. "In this time when people with a biblical worldview are a shrinking minority, this book will help us to stand strong for Christ and shine light to those hurt by the darkness of our day." If you would like to join, there's a sign-up sheet in the lobby or contact the church office. A group order will be placed on May 4th. Feel free to contact Holly Sina (920-248-9255).

Co-Ed Evening Bible Study

Anyone interested in being a part of an evening study for men and women (possibly the book the above women's group is studying), please contact Carmen Zacharias at 920-229-8049.

National Day of Prayer - Thursday, May 5th

The National Day of Prayer is an annual observance held on the first Thursday of May, inviting people of all faiths to pray for the nation. It was created in 1952 by a joint resolution of the United States Congress, and signed into law by President Harry S. Truman.

Kids' Magazine Subscriptions

We are again offering subscriptions to Clubhouse and Clubhouse Jr for a cost of $5 per child. The forms are in the lobby, you can put form and payment in the offering box.

Communion in May

The Lord's Supper will be observed on the 8th instead of the 1st in May.
