Good Morning Dear Friend.

Thanks for coming to worship the Lord with us today. What motivates you to do what you do? Is it love? Is it hate? Is it guilt? Is it fear? If we are honest, there may be times that we are motivated by each of these things. Today's Scripture passage gives us the picture of a man largely motivated by fear, but not the Fear of the Lord. Because of this, his choices resulted in a lot of pain for himself and others. May God help us do what we do with the right motivation, and a proper Fear of the Lord. This will be good for us, and others. Thanks again for coming' have a great week!

"Seeing that a pilot steers the ship in which we sail, who will never allow us to perish even in the midst of shipwrecks, there is no reason why our minds should be overwhelmed with fear and overcome with weariness." - John Calvin

"How very little can be done under the spirit of fear." - Florence Nightingale

"Are you facing fear today? Perhaps you are afraid of losing your job, of developing cancer or being left by your spouse. At times all of us experience fear. But don't allow fear to keep you from being used by God. He has kept you thus far; trust Him for the rest of the way." - Woodrow Kroll

Meal Support through Food Tidings

The Deaconesses (when aware of a need) can organize meal support for those recovering from surgeries or illness, or for new parents. Volunteers willing to make meals are a key component.

We will be trying out a new system, called "Food Tidings" to organize meal support. Here is how it works: Volunteers will be emailed about a need. The first time you receive an email from Food Tidings you must either create a Food Tidings account or use your Facebook account. Once you access the Food Tidings website through the email link, it will provide basic information about the household to be served. Volunteers may sign up to provide a meal on dates specified in the Food Tiding's calendar. Then finally, prepare the meal and deliver it according to the instructions provided.

We can always use additional volunteers willing to make meals. If you are interested in volunteering, we would need your name, email, and phone number. Please contact the church office or one of the following deaconesses: Peggy Cotterill, Sandy Fenske, Nancy Linger, Nancy Zastrow.

e-mail prayer.chain

If you would like to be added to the e-mail prayer chain to receive prayer requests and praises, please e-mail your request to ts@terraceshores.org. Thank you.

"LET'S NOT LOSE OUR HEADS"

MATTHEW 13:44-53 PASTOR GARY ZACHARIAS

INTRODUCTION

I. Herod was Afraid of _____ (14:1-2)

II. Herod was Afraid of _____ (14:3-5)

III. Herod was Afraid of _____ (14:6-12)

CONCLUSION

John the Baptist Beheaded

14 At that time Herod the tetrarch heard the reports about Jesus, 2 and he said to his attendants, "This is John the Baptist; he has risen from the dead! That is why miraculous powers are at work in him."

3 Now Herod had arrested John and bound him and put him in prison because of Herodias, his brother Philip's wife, 4 for John had been saying to him: "It is not lawful for you to have her." 5 Herod wanted to kill John, but he was afraid of the people, because they considered John a prophet.

6 On Herod's birthday the daughter of Herodias danced for the guests and pleased Herod so much 7 that he promised with an oath to give her whatever she asked. 8 Prompted by her mother, she said, "Give me here on a platter the head of John the Baptist." 9 The king was distressed, but because of his oaths and his dinner guests, he ordered that her request be granted 10 and had John beheaded in the prison. 11 His head was brought in on a platter and given to the girl, who carried it to her mother. 12 John's disciples came and took his body and buried it. Then they went and told Jesus.
