LET EVERYTHING THAT HAS BREATH PRAISE THE LORD.
PSALM 150:6

Good Morning Dear Friend.

We're glad that you've come to worship the Lord with us this morning. Today's Scripture passage is a familiar one, reminding us that God meets our physical needs. And He does this so that we can learn to trust Him for our even more important spiritual needs. May we trust Him for both, and respond with lives of thanksgiving for His gracious care.

Thanks again for being with us. Have a great week!

GriefShare is for people grieving the death of a family member or friend. Each week your Griefshare group will watch a video seminar featuring top experts on grief and recovery subjects. After viewing the video, you and other group member will spend time as a support group, discussing what was presented in that week's video seminar and learning what God's Word (the Bible) teaches. Don't forget to bring your Bible. Please join us on Tuesday evenings at 6:30. For more information go to <https://www.griefshare.org/groups/148639>

Meal Support through Food Tidings

The Deaconesses (when aware of a need) can organize meal support for those recovering from surgeries or illness, or for new parents. Volunteers willing to make meals are a key component.

We will be trying out a new system, called "Food Tidings" to organize meal support. Here is how it works: Volunteers will be emailed about a need. The first time you receive an email from Food Tidings you must either create a Food Tidings account or use your Facebook account. Once you access the Food Tidings website through the email link, it will provide basic information about the household to be served. Volunteers may sign up to provide a meal on dates specified in the Food Tiding's calendar. Then finally, prepare the meal and deliver it according to the instructions provided.

We can always use additional volunteers willing to make meals. If you are interested in volunteering, we would need your name, email, and phone number. Please contact the church office or one of the following deaconesses: Peggy Cotterill, Sandy Fenske, Nancy Linger, Nancy Zastrow.

Fellowship Pads

There are fellowship pads located in each pew. We encourage everyone to add their name and contact info along with any prayer requests. On Monday mornings the staff prays over any requests listed. If you include an email address, we will add you to our general email list (no spam, we promise!). Thank you!
