Welcome

Give thanks to the Lord, for he is good;
his love endures forever.
1 Chronicles 16:34

Good Morning Friend.

We're glad you are worshiping the Lord with us today. Have you ever felt like you weren't getting your due recognition? Or had an identity crisis, wondering where you fit in, or if you matter at all? Have you ever tried to impress someone with how talented or important you are? I think it's safe to say that we've all been there, and so were the disciples. In today's passage, Jesus teaches the disciples about what He values in people, and what we should also. May God encourage our hearts through this, helping us see ourselves and others as Jesus does.

Thanks for coming; have a great week!

Hymn

Closing Prayer

"It is a masterpiece of the devil to make us believe that children cannot understand religion. Would Christ have made a child the standard of faith if He had known that it was not capable of understanding His words?"

- Dwight L. Moody

"Children do not find it difficult or complicated to talk to their parents, nor do they feel embarrassed to bring the simplest need to their attention. Neither should we hesitate to bring the simplest requests confidently to the Father."

- Richard J. Foster

"If you plan to build a tall house of virtues, you must first lay deep foundations of humility."

- Augustine

"We had long known the Lord without realizing that meekness and lowliness of heart should be the distinguishing feature of the disciple."

- Andrew Murray

Advent Season Begins Nov 27th

We are planning to have our reading and candle lighting during the church services. We need people (families, couples, individuals) who would be willing to read a short devotional & prayer and light the candles. If interested or if you have any questions, please contact the church office.
