Welcome

Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly, teaching and admonishing one another in all wisdom, singing psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, with thankfulness in your hearts to God.

Colossians 3:16

Good Morning Brothers and Sisters

Do you ever find yourself thinking about what you would do in different hypothetical situations? Does it ever have a spiritual twist to it? This morning we are going to see a situation brought before Jesus that has to do with a teaching in the Law of Moses. The situation presented is not a pretty one. It's messy, as things in this world often get. Have you ever been in a situation that is messy and isn't easy to figure out? Today I hope you find comfort knowing that regardless of the situations we find ourselves in, Jesus has an answer for it. As we grow in our understanding of who He is, the difficult things of this world start to be not as difficult. May God grant each one of us wisdom as we look to Him in our lives.

May God be with you this week.

Closing Prayer

"The finite mind of man can never grasp the mysteries of the infinite. It is the highest wisdom, as it is our great happiness, to accept our limitations, to use what we have, and leave the rest to God."
– George Washington

"God's plan and His ways of working out His plan are frequently beyond our ability to fathom and understand. We must learn to trust when we don't understand."
– Jerry Bridges

"Men go abroad to wonder at the heights of mountains, at the huge waves of the sea, at the long courses of the rivers, at the vast compass of the ocean, at the circular motions of the stars, and they pass by themselves without wondering."
– Saint Augustine

Let them pray. Is anyone happy? Let them sing songs of praise. Is anyone among you sick? Let them call the elders of the church to pray over them and anoint them with oil in the name of the Lord."* This is what we want to do on Sunday evening, April 30, at 6:30 pm, here at Terrace Shores. We invite you to join us. If you have any questions, please feel free to check with Pastor Gary or one of the TS church elders. Thanks so much.
