Good Morning Friend

In a world where there are so many voices claiming to have the truth, how do we determine the true from the false? And how do we measure good spiritual leadership from bad spiritual leadership? Jesus' discussion with His disciples regarding the Jewish religious leadership, along with His advice on how the disciples should lead, gives us some wise advice from which to learn. May God help us become the type of leaders and influencers that honor Him and reflect truth. Thanks so much for coming; have a great week!

Closing Prayer

"If your actions inspire others to dream more, learn more, do more and become more, you are a leader."
- John Quincy Adams

"The Christian Gospel is that I am so flawed that Jesus had to die for me, yet I am so loved and valued that Jesus was glad to die for me. This leads to deep humility and deep confidence at the same time. It undermines both swaggering and sniveling. I cannot feel superior to anyone, and yet I have nothing to prove to anyone. I do not think more of myself or less of myself. Instead, I think of myself less." - Tim Keller

"If you plan to build a tall house of virtues, you must first lay deep foundations of humility."
- Augustine

"True leadership is found in giving yourself in service to others, not in coaxing or inducing others to serve you."
- Oswald Sanders

Ministry For Prayer

"Alex and Ann" serve with World Ventures in a closed country in Northern Africa. Ann teaches English and Alex works in videography. They use their professions discreetly to share the gospel.

The Lord's Supper

We are using the pre-filled communion cups. If you didn't grab one on your way in they are on the table by the sanctuary doors.
