Good Morning and Welcome to Terrace Shores.

May this morning be a time where we can reflect on the goodness of God even in the midst of a broken world. In the book of Ruth, we are seeing that God is bringing hope back to a hopeless situation. As we look at how God worked in the past, may we be encouraged to know that God is still at work today. May the peace of God that surpasses all understanding cover you today.

They always have wonderful discussions and of course prayer time. Feel free to contact Holly Sina at 920-248-9255.

Terrace Shores T-Shirts

We recently had t-shirts made up for staff and VBS volunteers. We have had such a great response that we are doing another order for anyone who would like to purchase! The company who screen-printed them, Triple Crown Products, has generously offered us the same great price: $8 per shirt for small to extra large sizes (if you need a larger size, please see Carmen Zacharias). There is a sample shirt by the VBS table and the sign-up sheet is on the table near the door. Orders due today!

The Water Fountain

We have discovered that the fountain is leaking and are working to find the leak so that we can repair it. It's possible the leak has come from all the activity in the fountain. Going forward, we are asking for your help in keeping the kids out of the water feature and also keeping them from throwing rocks into it. Thanks so much!

Church Group Motorcycle Rides

If you are interested in joining some motorcycle rides this season feel free to contact Rich Bartz at 920-872-3010. He is working on getting a few rides on the calendar.

"GRACE AND FAVOR FROM A REDEEMER"

RUTH 2:14-23 PASTOR MARK SINA

INTRODUCTION

1. God's _____ through Boaz.
(vs 14-17)
2. God's _____ for a redeemer.
(vs 18-23)

CONCLUSION

Ruth 2:14-23

14 At mealtime Boaz said to her, "Come over here. Have some bread and dip it in the wine vinegar." When she sat down with the harvesters, he offered her some roasted grain. She ate all she wanted and had some left over. 15 As she got up to glean, Boaz gave orders to his men, "Let her gather among the sheaves and don't reprimand her. 16 Even pull out some stalks for her from the bundles and leave them for her to pick up, and don't rebuke her." 17 So Ruth gleaned in the field until evening. Then she threshed the barley she had gathered, and it amounted to about an ephah. 18 She carried it back to town, and her mother-in-law saw how much she had gathered. Ruth also brought out and gave her what she had left over after she had eaten enough. 19 Her mother-in-law asked her, "Where did you glean today? Where did you work? Blessed be the man who took notice of you!" Then Ruth told her mother-in-law about the one at whose place she had been working. "The name of the man I worked with today is Boaz," she said. 20 "The Lord bless him!" Naomi said to her daughter-in-law. "He has not stopped showing his kindness to the living and the dead." She added, "That man is our close relative; he is one of our guardian-redeemers." 21 Then Ruth the Moabite said, "He even said to me, 'Stay with my workers until they finish harvesting all my grain.'" 22 Naomi said to Ruth her daughter-in-law, "It will be good for you, my daughter, to go with the women who work for him, because in someone else's field you might be harmed." 23 So Ruth stayed close to the women of Boaz to glean until the barley and wheat harvests were finished. And she lived with her mother-in-law.
