WELCOME

We're glad you're with us!

Your word is a lamp to my feet and a light to my path.
Psalm 119:105

Good Morning and Welcome to Terrace Shores.

Thank you for joining us this morning. Today we will be starting the book of 1 Samuel. As this book opens up we get a glimpse into a family situation that was not picture perfect. We see brokenness and rivalry along with some dedication to the LORD. Through it we are reminded that God uses broken people and situations to bring about His plans. Wherever you are this morning in your soul, we hope that you will be encouraged as we look into the book of 1 Samuel.

Closing Prayer

*"Hannah's prayer highlights the importance of pouring out our hearts to God and trusting in His sovereignty."
- Tony Evans*

*"Hannah's example teaches us to pray fervently and believe that God hears and answers our prayers."
- Charles Spurgeon*

*"God always listens to and honors prayers that are in line with his will. Hannah's prayer is a great example of this truth."
- John F. MacArthur*

1 SAMUEL 1:1-11

The Birth of Samuel

1 There was a certain man from Ramathaim, a Zuphite from the hill country of Ephraim, whose name was Elkanah son of Jeroham, the son of Elihu, the son of Tohu, the son of Zuph, an Ephraimite. 2 He had two wives; one was called Hannah and the other Peninnah. Peninnah had children, but Hannah had none. 3 Year after year this man went up from his town to worship and sacrifice to the Lord Almighty at Shiloh, where Hophni and Phinehas, the two sons of Eli, were priests of the Lord. 4 Whenever the day came for Elkanah to sacrifice, he would give portions of the meat to his wife Peninnah and to all her sons and daughters. 5 But to Hannah he gave a double portion because he loved her, and the Lord had closed her womb. 6 Because the Lord had closed Hannah's womb, her rival kept provoking her in order to irritate her. 7 This went on year after year. Whenever Hannah went up to the house of the Lord, her rival provoked her till she wept and would not eat. 8 Her husband Elkanah would say to her, "Hannah, why are you weeping? Why don't you eat? Why are you downhearted? Don't I mean more to you than ten sons?" 9 Once when they had finished eating and drinking in Shiloh, Hannah stood up. Now Eli the priest was sitting on his chair by the doorpost of the Lord's house. 10 In her deep anguish Hannah prayed to the Lord, weeping bitterly. 11 And she made a vow, saying, "Lord Almighty, if you will only look on your servant's misery and remember me, and not forget your servant but give her a son, then I will give him to the Lord for all the days of his life, and no razor will ever be used on his head."

Ministry For Prayer

Damascus Road Project was founded in 2009 and is dedicated to fighting the evil of sex trafficking and sexual exploitation. We are committed to bring awareness through educating, restoring and empowering the abused, and advocating for the prevention and abolition of sex trafficking and commercial sexual exploitation.

Damascus Road Project, Inc. is a 100% specially trained volunteer run 501(c)3 non-profit organization. No one draws a wage, so 100% of funds donated directly serve our local communities. We have over 40 years of collective experience working with human trafficking in Wisconsin, Las Vegas, and across the U.S., as well as abroad. Damascus Road Project, Inc. has participated in hotel outreach efforts at six Super Bowls. We have worked alongside a national missing children's organization, other anti-trafficking NGO's, and local law enforcement, resulting in recoveries each year.

We serve the community with a three-fold approach – EDUCATE (Community and professional education and training opportunities are offered to all community members.), LOCATE (We provide community outreach to identify those being victimized) & ADVOCATE (We connect with those who have been victimized and offer support, compassion, encouragement and mentorship, as well as connection to appropriate resources and services).

In it you'll find an informational brochure and other items we would like you to have for being our guest this morning!

The Ordination of Pastor Paul Ethington

Pastor Paul Ethington will be ordained during the 10:15am service on Aug 13th at Trinity Free Church in Ripon. A lunch will be served afterwards.

The Lord's Supper

We are using the pre-filled communion cups. If you didn't grab one on your way in they are on the table by the sanctuary doors or on the table with the offering box for the outdoor service.

Today is Our Monthly Benevolence Offering

The first Sunday of each month there is a benevolence offering. This offering is used to help meet a variety of special needs for people in the area. Please specify donations as benevolence and place in the offering box in the lobby. Thank you!
