Ministry For Prayer

John Mark and Sara Sheppard serve as missionaries in Liberia with SIM. They work among the unreached Many people group, helping believers grow in their faith through discipleship, leadership training and scripture resource development. You can see an interview that Nate Lehner did with them on our website.

Welcome

Thank you for being with us!

GOOD MORNING, DEAR FRIEND.

Thanks for coming to worship the Lord with us. If you have ever gone through a time of great pain, and cried out to God in prayer, you will probably relate to David's words in today's Scripture passage. Through our own fault or not, there may be times in life we find ourselves desperate, wondering if God has given up on us, but He is always there. May the words of David's prayers comfort and encourage us to be completely honest with God, and always humbly seek His care. Thanks again for coming; have a great week!

Hymn

Closing Prayer

"Prayer is not a place to be good, it is a place to be honest. Prayer is not a place to perform, it is a place to be present. Prayer is not a place to be right, it is a place to be known. Prayer is not a place to prove your worth, it is a place to receive worth and offer yourself in truth."

- Kyle Strobel, Where Prayer Becomes Real: How Honesty with God Transforms Your Soul

"He has infinite attention to spare for each one of us. He does not have to deal with us in the mass. You are as much alone with Him as if you were the only being He had ever created."

- C.S. Lewis, Mere Christianity

"Today, we are living in desperate times. Yet, the Church is not desperate before God in prayer."

- Chuck Smith

"The reason 'help' is such a great prayer is that God is the gift of desperation. When you're in despair, you're teachable."

- Anne Lamott
